

Thursday, August 2, 1888.

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON
OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

JUDGES SABIN AND SAWYER.

The Reno Gazette publishes the following:

The Gazette's position relative to Judges Sawyer and Sabin yesterday is sustained. A reporter learned through Judge Field of the United States Supreme Court, that these eminent jurists, in their decisions relative to the admission of Chinese, are following a decision rendered by that court. There is no rule better established than that inferior courts should respect the decisions of the higher, and that when the Supreme Court of the United States passes upon a question it is binding upon all minor tribunals.

While Judge Field entertains views different from those of his associates on the bench on the vexed question, he recognizes the binding force of them.

It is easy to raise a hue and cry against anybody, and when a fanatic raises his voice in a matter that pricks and goads public sentiment, whether right or wrong, the masses do not stop to think.

The Gazette is more of the opinion that the action of the late meeting in San Francisco, which so unwarrantably attacked Judges Sawyer and Sabin, was ill-advised, and that the resolutions of condemnation were the fruits of not only ignorance of the law, but a lack of knowledge and appreciation of what the duties of the men whom they endeavor to malign are.

THE DIFFERENCE.

The Commissioners of Golden Gate Park took hold of a sandy waste and converted it into a beautiful park.

The Commissioners of Yosemite Valley took the garden spot of the earth, and have made a bandits' valley and robbers' roost of it.

They have cut down the trees, spoiled all the best scenery, and made it a reproach to the Coast.

A more incompetent set of mercenary rascals never formed a majority on a Committee than these men. They should all be kicked out at once.
